

Luke 17: 11 – 19.

Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he was going into village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance and called out in a loud voice, “Jesus, Maser, have pity on us!”

When he saw them, he said, “Go, show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were cleansed.

One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him – and he was a Samaritan.

Jesus asked, “Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? Was no-one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” Then he said to him, “Rise and go; your faith has made you well”.

O Lord Jesus, who did have compassion on lepers, and stretched forth your hand did touch them into health and life. Have mercy on those who suffer from the same disease to-day; prosper the efforts of all who care for them; that they may be healed in body and soul and restored to fellowship with their families and friends, for your holy name’s sake. Amen.
